
DINNER DILEMMA DIALOGUE: EVERYONE’S ON FACEBOOK

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Your student has been requested to bring this worksheet home and discuss the following case and determine what the best options would be to demonstrate integrity. We want to encourage a dialogue about the importance of integrity. We welcome your participation to help promote integrity at our school. This worksheet will only be graded for its completion and return to class.

Enjoy the discussion!

Background: Michael enjoys his extracurricular activities a little more than he does his classes, and his grades have suffered this semester. His parents have warned him that if his social studies grades don’t improve they will pull him from his next event. So what has Michael found on Facebook today? A classmate has photographed and posted online pictures of some of the pages of the next social studies exam. The pictures were taken on the teacher’s desk when she was out of the room. What a study guide!

The Actors: Michael, classmates on Facebook, Michael’s teacher, Michael’s parents.

Stop! Does Michael have a dilemma? (Describe the problem.)

Think! And outline your responses below if you were Michael.

What are Michael’s choices?	What character trait would be demonstrated with this choice?	How does the Golden Rule (“Do unto others as you would have others do unto you”) apply to this choice?
