POWERFUL TEACHING

ADDED IMPACT WITHOUT ADDED WORK

This interactive workshop is designed to enable participants to recognize and identify the asset-building they are currently doing as part of good teaching practice; as well as providing tools, strategies and resources to strengthen and expand their impact with students. Educators will leave feeling affirmed and inspired to use every moment with students to create the conditions for optimal learning.

As a result of participating in this training participants will:

- Understand Search Institute’s Developmental Assets® framework ;
- Identify the connection between building assets, improved academic achievement and healthy outcomes;
- Examine instructional practices through the asset-building lens;
- Explore strategies for infusing assets into content areas and existing curricula; and
- Explore resources for on-going support.

“I benefitted from the opportunity to share ideas. The group interaction was helpful.”

“The whole day was wonderful! The trainer’s knowledge and experience added richness to the discussion.”
