YOUTH LEADERSHIP

ASSET-BUILDING STRATEGIES FOR UNLEASHING THE GIFTS OF YOUNG PEOPLE

A Training Program for Youth and Adults Together

Engaging young people as active leaders and partners is a core principle of asset building. But how do you do it effectively? Through this workshop, adults and youth will together learn how to use an asset-building approach to tap into young people's energy, creativity, and commitment for their school, youth organization, congregation, or community.

Participants in this intergenerational workshop will:

- Expand their understanding of the diverse leadership roles available for young people;
- Assess how their organization or community already engages young people as leaders;
- Gain practical ideas for strengthening youth leadership through asset building in their organization or community; and
- Create strategies for strengthening youth leadership through organizational and personal action.

"This training blew me away - it made me want to be part of the solution."

Who Should Attend: Educators, youth workers, congregational leaders, youth, and community builders from all sectors who seek to strengthen their asset-building and youth leadership efforts. The workshop is designed for multi-sector, intergenerational audiences. It can also be presented within a single sector, such as education.

Length: 4 hours

Group Size: 15-35 participants

Price: $1,650 per session, plus per-participant materials (cost based on number of participants) and trainer travel expenses.

Recommended Materials for Each Participant:
An Asset Builder's Guide to Youth Leadership, the Asset Approach booklet, and 150 Ways to Show Kids You Care mini-poster.
