

Collaborative Action Data Planning Session

The highly engaging data planning session is intended for organizations that have administered a Search Institute survey and would like to work with a Search Institute facilitator to understand and use survey data for planning and improvement.

Participants will:

- Understand Search Institute’s relevant research and why it matters to your work
- Reflect on and explore survey data as it relates to your organization and your work
- Participate in a collaborative process to gain meaning from your survey data
- Work through a planning process in order to begin answering the questions: “so what, now what”

The following surveys can be used as the basis for this facilitated session:

- Attitudes and Behaviors
- Developmental Assets Profile
- Youth and Program Strengths
