YOUTH LEAD
A WORKSHOP FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

When you cultivate young people’s commitment and skills as leaders, you not only prepare them to be 21st Century leaders, but you also tap their energy and imagination to solve problems and create positive change in their schools and communities right now.

Youth Participants Will

- Understand the qualities of effective leaders
- Recognize their leadership skills and priorities
- Understand how to influence others for the common good.
- Build support among their peers to take on leadership roles
- Practice leadership skills by planning to create positive change

Who Should Attend?

- Middle and High School youth preparing for leadership

Workshop Format

- Interactive & Engaging Team Building
- Real Time Leadership Project Planning
- 3 – 4 Hours

“Our kids came flying out of the session. They had so many practical ideas, and adult mentors were ready to help.”

School Administrator

“Fun, organized, liked all the movement, very positive environment.”

High School Student

“Felt listened too and felt I learned about my strengths.”

Middle School Student